The concept of conventional tooth-retained overdentures is a simple and cost effective treatment for your semi-edentulous and edentulous patients. Implant retained overdentures improve retention and stability of the final prosthesis significantly, help in the preservation of bone and may delay the process of complete edentulism, and provide the patient with more comfort and more efficient mastication.

You will learn:

- Diagnosis & treatment planning
- Attachment design, selection, and application
- Nobel Guide overview
- Locator attachment
 - Chairside technique
 - Indirect technique
- Complications and how to deal with them
- Recall and maintenance

Featured Speaker: Matthew Hallas, DMD

Dr. Matthew Hallas received his Doctor of Dental Medicine from Tufts University School of Dental Medicine in Boston, MA. After graduation, he continued his education at University of Illinois at Chicago – College of Dentistry, completing a 36-month residency in Prosthodontics in which he received extensive training in restorative and surgical therapies. Dr. Hallas is an active member in both the American College of Prosthodontics and the Academy of Osseointegration. He has written several articles and has had several implant-patient therapies published. Dr. Hallas recently moved to Green Bay with his wife and practices full-time at Bay Lakes Center for Complex Dentistry.
